

The recent plans of the Sinclair corporation to televise the anti-Kerry programs - an obvious attempt to influence the outcome of the presidential election - illustrate the dangers of the monopoly that such groups have over our media currently. And, collusion of govt. agencies like the FCC is unconscionable - Shame on You, FCC for bias on behalf of these large corporate interests!